Procedures and Time Requirements

Participant will select, prepare, and display an entry from one of the event categories, according to the specified theme. Participant is responsible for bringing all materials for the display; optional including a backdrop. Each entry will submit a file folder with the required documents to the event Room Consultant at the designated time. Winners in each category will be the displays with the highest point totals. Evaluators will select one “Best of Show.”
60 minutes	Participant will have a maximum of 60 minutes to set up for the event. Other persons may not assist. Participant will be responsible for the preparation of the exhibit in its entirety and all materials. Participant will exhibit industry level skills in the selection, workmanship, and presentation of their project on a 2 ½' X 4' draped table space provided at the event. Participant shall prepare a 4”X6” placard (mounting or framing may be larger) that lists the category, theme, and the title of the display. Placard must be included in the display and brought during orientation. Participant is expected to dress to industry standards: chef coat, toque, chef pants, and non-skid chef shoes. Participant must prepare and handle display items as ready to eat food, i.e. including the use of gloves, tongs, or other equipment. Note: Play-Doh is not allowed.
3 minutes	The oral presentation may be up to 3 minutes in length. Oral presentation will be stopped after 3 minutes and 30 seconds. Evaluators will have 2 minutes to ask clarifying questions. The oral presentation is a time for the participant, in the role of the chosen Culinary career, to present to the evaluators the inspiration for the display and the techniques demonstrated. Student takes on the role of the related career.
5 minutes	Evaluators will have up to 5 minutes to use the rubric to score and write comments for each participant. At the conclusion of the evaluations, competitors must return to the event room for verbal critique by evaluators.
	At State Level only, participant will need to wear either proper, clean chef attire or FCCLA official dress at the awards ceremony.
