June State Officer Meeting

June 12–15, Sacramento, CA

The 2018–2019 State Officers quickly jumped into action after the 2018 State Leadership Conference. The June State Officer Meeting consisted of the six new State Officers in addition to State Advisor Ms. Webb and State Officer Preparation Coach Ms. Cassidy as they headed to Sacramento to plan for another eventful year. There, State Officers learned more about their position responsibilities and key techniques on being an effective leader. They hope to utilize those skills and apply them to their first meeting, Region Officer Training Conference.

"It was a spectacular experience, I’ve learned so much from it"
- ALEXIS MORALES

In addition to preparing for the year, they visited the Capitol to advocate for FCCLA to their legislators. They even had the rare opportunity of visiting a live Senate session in the Red and Green room!

Leadership & Management Conference

June 21–23, Garden Grove, CA

Three of our state officers joined State Advisor Ms. Webb and State Officer Preparation Coach Ms. Cassidy in Garden Grove to speak at the Leadership and Management Conference. There, they had the opportunity to meet Family and Consumer Sciences teachers who worked on improving their curriculum and lesson plans.

"It’s a great experience to learn more about the organization and get a behind the scenes of what teachers do for us"
- ELEODORO DURAN
National Leadership

»»»»»»» Conference ««««««««

June 28–July 2, Atlanta, GA

Nationals this year sure was a blast! Ninety-two California FCCLA members and advisors hopped on a plane headed to Atlanta, Georgia, to represent the California Delegation. National Leadership Conference consisted of State finalists competing at the National Level, leadership training workshops, and so much more! Aside from workshops and competitions, members were able to participate in activities such as the Run for Red 5k, visiting the Georgia Aquarium, hearing Boyce Avenue at the FCCLA music festival, and even dressing up for the FCCLA Gala. California definitely showed off their pride during the first general session and when California received the Membership Increase Award. We can’t wait for Anaheim next year!

"NLC was such a great experience because it brought people from over a thousand miles away across the nation together. I hope to attend as an alumni next year!"

- LAUREN WINSLOW
