Submittal of Materials for Competition

All competitors must turn in a completed “CRE Student Permission” forms at the General Orientation and ID Check to the CRE Room Consultant. This would include Chapter in Review Portfolio, Chapter Service Project Display, National Programs in Action, Parliamentary Procedure, and Promote and Publicize FCCLA. Failure to turn in a completed copy of this form for appropriate participants will constitute disqualification from participation for said participant and/or chapter.

General Orientation and ID Check

All CRE participants must report to the designated room specified in the state conference program for the General Orientation and ID Check that is scheduled to correspond with his/her specific event. CRE participants who do not report by the beginning of the scheduled orientation time or who leave the orientation to get materials or for any other reason will be disqualified and will not be able to compete in the State Finals. Orientation and ID Check sessions for the 2019 State Finals are as follows:

Sunday, April 28, 2019

NOTE: Locations yet to be determined and subject to change – consult conference app or on-site program for definitive location for each activity/event.

7:15 a.m.-7:30 a.m.

Seating of CRE Participants

7:30 a.m.-8:00 a.m.

CRE Orientation & Dress Check

CRE Competition Identification (REQUIRED)

All CRE participants will be required to show two items at the General Orientation and CRE ID Check specified for the events being held on Sunday, April 28, and at the CRE Check-In and Rehearsal on Tuesday, April 30: (1) their State Leadership Conference CRE Competitor Identification and (2) a current photo ID.

Exams and Case Studies

Event exams and/or Case Studies for CRE participants in Applied Math for Culinary Management, Culinary Arts, Parliamentary Procedure, and Hospitality, Tourism, and Recreation, will take place during the event orientation session and set-up on the day of competition as specified in the official State Leadership Conference program.

Enforcement of Rules, Guidelines, and Penalties

All rules and guidelines including factors resulting in disqualification will be strictly enforced as stated in the "FCCLA Competitive Recognition Events General Disqualifications" which can be found on the California FCCLA website: <https://www.ca-fccla.org/resources/forms-and-documents/>. The decisions of the CRE evaluators are final. Participants and Advisors should also frequently review the "Questions and Answers for CRE events" also on the CRE forms page as it is updated frequently.

CRE Awards Program Check In and Rehearsal

All CRE participants must attend the CRE Check In and Rehearsal that precedes the Awards Program CRE participants will report to the Room Consultant following admittance to the meeting room. Roll will be taken, official dress will be checked, and directions will be given regarding the Awards Program.

CRE participants who do not check in on time or who do not attend the entire CRE Check In and Rehearsal prior to the Awards Program will have penalty points deducted. These penalty points could change the final rankings. Any CRE participant not attending on Tuesday to accept his/her award will be disqualified. Participants who are not allowed to receive recognition on stage because of official dress infractions will receive their awards following the closing general session.

AWARDS PROGRAM

The Awards Program is held at the end of the State Leadership Conference to recognize both the winners and the participants during a general assembly of participants, members, advisors, evaluators, event sponsors, and guests. The basic awards for CRE State Finals are as follows:

1 st place	Trophy and Participation Certificate
2 nd place	Trophy and Participation Certificate
3 rd place	Trophy and Participation Certificate
All others	Participation Certificate

The following CRE events have additional awards provided by sponsors:

Culinary Display	Best of Show, Special Award
Parliamentary Procedure	Outstanding President, FCCLA Gavel Outstanding Secretary, Pen/Desk Set

In other specified events, cash awards, scholarships, and other merchandise is awarded to the 1st, 2nd, and/or 3rd place winners as provided by sponsors. The additional awards will be announced during the presentation of awards.

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHS OF WINNERS

First, second, and third place winners should report to the State Leadership Conference photographer immediately after accepting their awards. Staff will provide direction to the location for the official pictures.

RETURN OF CRE EVENT MATERIALS

Event materials such as file folders with event contents and evaluator rubrics will be compiled by school and may be picked up after the close of the Awards Program by the Chapter Advisors. If the school does not pick up the materials within one hour following the closing general session, they will be discarded. The materials, under any circumstances, will NOT be returned to the school.

OFFICIAL DRESS FOR CRE STATE FINALS AND AWARDS PROGRAM

CRE participants must wear the official FCCLA blazer that has the FCCLA patch on the left hip pocket of the blazer with white and black clothing as outlined in the FCCLA Official Dress Policy. In the event a member does not have an official blazer, please arrange to borrow one from another chapter or order one prior to the State Leadership Conference. ALL official FCCLA uniform items (blazers, ties, etc.) may be purchased online from the national FCCLA website: <https://fccla.mybrightsites.com/>. The state FCCLA website: <https://www.ca-fccla.org/shop-california-fccla/> sells items such as shirts, pants, skirts, etc.

CRE participants should be instructed to wear a solid white blouse or shirt that must remain tucked in and a tailored black skirt of the appropriate length, or dress slacks. Dress shoes with closed toes and heels should be black. Ascots/neckties should be solid black or striped red/black.

NOTE: Culinary Arts and Culinary Display participants are allowed to attend the General Orientation and CRE ID Check in their chef attire. Attendance will be taken; and photo identification and state conference registration will be checked during General Orientation. Official Dress or chef attire must be worn to the CRE Check In and Rehearsal on Tuesday morning. If students are not in official dress or chef attire per the CRE Dress Policy, they will be disqualified.

NOTE: Child Development participants may change into their costume after the General Orientation and CRE ID Check. Attendance will be taken; and photo identification and state conference registration will be checked during General Orientation. Official Dress must be worn to the CRE Check In and Rehearsal on Tuesday morning. If students are not in official dress per the CRE Dress Policy, they will be disqualified.

FCCLA NATIONAL Leadership Conference (NLC): The 2019 National Leadership Conference will be held in Anaheim, California, from June 30–July 4, 2019. Chapter members who are planning to attend the National Conference must attend the NLC Orientation at the end of the FCCLA State Leadership Conference on Tuesday, April 30, 2019, where information will be shared on fees, policies, and travel.

NATIONAL STAR EVENTS PARTICIPANTS MEETING - *Students Taking Action with Recognition: CRE State Finalists in the events listed below will be eligible to compete in STAR Events at the National Leadership Conference in July. All first and second place winners in junior, senior, and occupational division events are expected to attend both the NLC Orientation and the STAR Events Orientation meeting on Tuesday, April 30, 2019. Guidelines for the STAR Events will be distributed at this meeting. Entry fees for STAR events must be paid on the national website by Tuesday, May 7, 2019. They are $45.00 per participant. FCCLA charges a late entry fee of $100.00 per participant for entry fees that are received after the due date.

Registration is required to participate in all sessions and special events at the FCCLA National Leadership Conference. The weekly national registration package is approximately $300.00 and includes weekly registration and the FCCLA Gala. The 2019 NLC Guide includes general conference and hotel/travel information and can be found at this link: <http://fcclainc.org/meetings/national-leadership-conference.php>.
